- International Games Day

Wednesday, November 1st

Join us for a worldwide celebration of games and gaming at Adams Memorial Library! For kids, throughout the day we'll be playing and demonstrating a variety of tabletop games including Love Letter, Hanabi, Magic: the Gathering and more! For adults, we're playing a board game version of the popular "escape rooms." Escape rooms are puzzle-solving adventures. They are not haunted houses, there is no scariness or danger involved. Players will be "locked" in and given one hour to "escape" using only their wits. People may play alone but we strongly encourage them to play as a team of up to eight people. Players must register for the time slot of their choice from among the available times throughout the day. Registration is required. To register for either event or ask about the schedules, stop by the circulation desk or call 724-539-1972.
